

SEMINARS AT THE PORCELAIN PLACE

FOR

WINTER AND EARLY SPRING 2011

Saturday February 12th

Dichroic Glass in the Microwave

10 am to 4 pm

$45.00

Learn how to glue Dichroic to form a wonderful pendant and then fire it in a standard Microwave. Normally these cabochons sell for up to $75 each when purchased at art fairs. You will be able to make 3 during this fun one day seminar. Includes all Supplies

Saturday and Sunday,
February 19th and 20th

Beginning Lace Draping

9 am to 5 pm both days

$85.00

LACE DRAPING WEEKEND. (If you have previously taken a lace draping seminar you may do an advanced doll of your choice this weekend) Beginning Lace Draping will teach you how to create a one of a kind lace draped doll. She will be 9" tall once fired and you will have your choice of colors of porcelain and styles of lace. You will learn all of the basics. Includes all lace and porcelain. Supply list provided.

Saturday and Sunday March 19th and 20th

Muffin the Mouse BJD or Pogo the Rabbit BJD

10am to 4pm both days

$85.00

In this fun two day seminar you will learn how to china paint a BJD animal in two firings the first day. The second day you will inset the eyes and string it. You may choose either the Mouse or the Rabbit. Or you may pay $75 additional and complete both animals. Your choice. All supplies will be included.

Saturday March 26th

Stoneware Tea Pot and your choice extra piece if you want

(you may pick either a butter keeper, pie plate, or salsa chiller as your second piece) Click HERE to see photos.

10 am to 4 pm

$40.00 one piece

$60.00 two pieces

This is our most popular NEW STONEWARE ITEM. In one seminar you will complete this wonderful teapot. The outside is painted in our Designer Strokes and trimmed in Mayco Stroke and Coat so that in one firing you will achieve the glazed black and matte flower combination. You may take it home to fire or we will fire it for you. Just bring your favorite brushes. Soft-Fire bisque and all paints and glazes will be supplied

Saturday and Sunday April 16th and 17th

Depression Glass Slumped Plate and Etched glass with Decorative Art Paste

10 am to 4 pm both days

$85.00

GLASS WEEKEND - For those who were not able to attend the glass convention in Vegas this year he is teaching two of the pieces here in our studio. On Saturday you will paint with our enamels on a wonderful soft champagne colored glass and learn to etch the pale blue glass shown using special vinyl stencils. Saturday night we will slump your plates. Sunday you will apply the Decorative Art Paste to the etched areas of the blue glass and will be able to take both piece home complete. Everything you need will be supplied.

Saturday April 30th

Bone China Rose Box with china paints

10 am to 5 pm

$40.00

People have been bugging us for two years to have a seminar in this wonderful Bone China box and we finally gave in. Actually we finally were able to fit it into our schedule. You will work on a fired Bone China box completely fired with clear glaze in spots. In two china paint firings you will paint the roses on the box and trim the box in 22 carat gold. Just bring your favorite brushes. Everything else will be supplied.

All seminar seats need to be reserved in advance so that we can be prepared for you.

The Porcelain Place
4975 Iris St.
Wheat Ridge, CO 80033
(303) 382-1060